Broadcasting's
decision to force
their stations to
air an anti-Kerry
documentary days
before the election
is a clear example
of the dangers of
media consolidation.
What we need is for
the airwaves to
truly send us
un-biased and
undiluted news, not propaganda masked as news. This is just plain wrong and it's time for the FCC to strengthen the rules
and regulations
which will guarantee
that the airwaves
remain the domain of the people and not a
few broadcasters.

Thank you.
